Summer Day Camps and Programs

Boston Centers for Youth & Families (BCYF) is the City of Boston's largest youth and human service agency and the lead department for Mayor Thomas M. Menino's Boston R.O.C.K.S!!! summer programming campaign. Included in this brochure are dozens of neighborhood-based and citywide summer day camps and programs for Boston's young people. We have arranged this guide by neighborhood to help you navigate our full menu of exciting programs. On the back cover, you will see a list of partners we would like to acknowledge whose support helps us bring this programming to you.

These programs aren't only a lot of fun; they also keep children's minds and bodies active over the summer months so they are prepared for the return to school in the fall. This summer many of our camps and programs will host activities with a health and nutrition theme in support of Mayor Menino's goal of a combined loss of 1 million pounds by Bostonians this year.

BCYF summer programs are offered throughout the City and many of the summer programs provide meals and accept vouchers, offer scholarships, or accept payment on a sliding scale. Each of these rich summer opportunities vary from center to center and space is limited as registration fills quickly. We encourage you to contact BCYF centers directly for specific program and registration information. For your convenience a list of centers with contact information is noted on the previous page. Please note you will be required to provide up-to-date physical examination and immunization records for your child. All camps comply with regulations of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health and are licensed by the local board of health.

Each one of BCYF's community centers offers a unique approach to summer enrichment opportunities through ACES-Arts, Community & Civic engagement, Education, and Sports. You can expect your child to participate in a range of opportunities that include arts and crafts, recreation, health and fitness, field trips, specials events, performing arts, neighborhood exploration and cultural activities. Many of these programs are offered to a wide range of ages with some that focus specifically on older children and youth.

Summer is an exciting time and there are hundreds more summer programs offered by other city departments and private non-profits that you can find out about by going to www.bostonyouthzone.com or calling 617-635-KIDS. Have a wonderful summer!

*Double check your program details with the center or contact listed.
Due to early printing deadlines, sometimes things may change!*
